WORKING HERE...

Arjun Sudhir
Associate, NAB

There is a clear message at NAB from our senior leaders encouraging employees to be their authentic selves at work and let their unique qualities shine. I feel that this truly inspires a culture of diversity and inclusion at the workplace, allowing us to be the best version of ourselves. Having an initiative like Pride@NAB gives NAB the opportunity to show its support openly.

I have been a Pride@NAB member since I joined NAB about two years ago. Being a part of this community has given me the confidence to be open about my life outside of work and bring my full self to work. In addition to this, Pride@NAB has given me the opportunity to participate in a number of LGBTI events, including Midsumma and the Melbourne Pride March. This has helped me expand my involvement within the greater community and learn more about the issues the community faces. I am proud to work for a company that stands proudly beside its employees, regardless of their background and sexual orientation.
