WORKING HERE...

Jo Corcoran
Chief Information Officer

As an Executive Ally to the AGD LGBTI employee network, I see my role as ensuring the workplace experience of all staff is taken into account by working with the LGBTI Champion and the wider department to encourage and promote an inclusive workplace. Through this role, and by listening to members of the network, I have gained a much greater understanding on how the day to day experience of LGBTI employees can affect their ability to contribute completely to the workplace. The LGBTI network shows support to people who identify and acts to promote awareness to the department so all employees feel comfortable bringing their whole self to work.
